The Yateley Society

A Happy New Year to everybody!

An Important Meeting

The AGM is approaching, it will be held on Thursday 20th February 1997
in Room D.1.6 of The Yateley Centre
at 7:30pm

As you are aware there was a Special General Meeting in November to consider a revision of the Yateley Society Constitution. This meeting over-ran the time available and the business will be concluded during a Special General Meeting on the AGM evening.

The more people who come, the more who hear the discussion, so please attend. Amongst other things it is essential that we reach a quorum of members and your support will be most valuable.

This is the formal calling notice for the AGM and for the Special General Meeting.

The papers for the Special General meeting are attached

-----ooOoo-----

The Programme listed overleaf for the start of the year has, as ever, been rearranged to suit the availability of speakers. You will see that one talk has no connection with Yateley whatsoever, apart from the speaker: this departure from recent practice is one of two we plan this year to give a taste of totally different weather to that we are experiencing here!

There are three walks shown, neither of which is strenuous, and there will be more later in the year. Please remember that you are invited to suggest favourite walks for us to try, and you can ask for someone else to lead them if you so wish.
