YATELEY SOCIETY PROGRAMME
1999

LIBRARY ANNIVERSARY 7:45pm Wednesday October 20th

The Yateley Society will present three talks in the Yateley Centre Green Room, and an exhibition in Yateley Library for all of October, to help celebrate the 25th anniversary of the Library's move to its current building. Tony Hocking will outline the Society's activities; Peter Tipton will present "Hunting Down Parson Darby"; Richard Johnston will explain and demonstrate the History Database, which will be accessible to all throughout October in the Library.

Admission £1 to the Library Service for refreshments. Tickets are limited - they may be purchased in advance from Tony Hocking (30 Connaught Close, 875 158) or from Yateley Library.

You need to come to hear the very latest information on the life and authenticity of one of Yateley's most intriguing characters!

OCTOBER

TALK - THE VYNE

by Margaret Drury

Venue: Yateley Centre Room D.1.6 at 8 pm.

Thursday October 21st.

An illustrated talk about the recently improved National Trust house and gardens.

Mrs Drury is a well known local National Trust speaker, who recently gave a short course on N.T. properties for the W.E.A.
